Introduction

As the new national funding formula is unveiled by Justine Greening and schools in England face having to find £3bn of savings by 2019-20 (National Audit Office), the subject of funding in education remains front of mind.

Schools are under pressure to deliver an outstanding educational provision for students in an increasingly tough financial environment.

Additional pots of money are available in the form of grants from trusts and foundations, as well as specific government departments. Navigating the mass of information and differing criteria and application processes can often mean that eligible schools are not receiving money that they could be entitled to.

This guide is aimed at Headteachers, School Business Managers, Finance Managers, Bursars, Parents, Governors and anyone else who has an interest in fundraising for schools.

There are many grants available in the UK which may be relevant to your school. This guide provides details of some of the main grants and summarises the key details in an easy to review way.

Each grant included is split in to the following sections, to help you decide if it is of interest before you access the grant website via the links provided.

- Funding Range
- Eligible Organisations
- Suitable Projects
- Application Process
- Important Dates
- Link to grant website
- Link to application form or application details

Good luck with your applications!

Please note that due to Covid19 some of the grants detailed in this guide may be temporarily paused or have changed their details. We advise that you check the grant provider's website for the latest updates before you continue the application process.

Guidance for Applying for Grants

The Hedley Foundation

The Hedley Foundation funds projects that help disadvantaged young people in the UK. Apply before the next Trust meeting to have your application considered.

Funding Range

Typically grants of up to £5,000 are made, although larger sums can be given where the charity can have a larger impact.

Eligible Organisations

Small to mid-sized UK registered charities are able to apply.

Suitable Projects

The Trust funds a range of projects aimed at helping disadvantaged young people, broadening their horizons through sport, adventurous activities, education, the arts or training.

Application Process

Please download the application form on the Trust's website and complete it by post to the given address.

Important Dates

The Trustees meet four times a year, applications should be received at least six weeks before the meeting date. The remaining meetings for this year are:

27th April 2022, 27th July 2022 and 2nd November 2022.

Daiwa Foundation: Small Grants

Schools are able to apply for up to £7,000 to fund projects which support the interaction between the UK and Japan. Make sure you don't miss the 31st March deadline!

Funding Range

Grants between £2,000 and £7,000 are awarded, however, to fund as many projects as possible £3,000 is typically awarded.

Eligible Organisations

Individuals, societies, associations or other bodies in the UK are invited to apply for funding.

Suitable Projects

This scheme funds a wide range of projects, including educational exchanges, research travel, exhibitions and other activities which promote the relationship between the UK and Japan.

Application Process

Schools can apply online.

Important Dates

There are two application deadlines a year, 31st March and 30th September. However, the Foundation advises that you submit your application as early as you can.

Engineering Education Grant Scheme

The Engineering Education Grant Scheme (EEGS) supports projects which increase engineering knowledge, improve wider engineering literacy and bring about a better understanding of the role of the engineer.

Funding Range

Awards of up to £5,000 are available for standard applications, and a small number of awards of up to £15,000 are available for projects aiming to make a bigger impact.

Eligible Organisations

Schools in the UK can apply for funding, however, they should not already be directly funded by the Institution of Engineering and Technology.

Suitable Projects

A wide range of projects will be considered, particularly those which demonstrate diverse expertise and a range of skills from a variety of sectors.

Application Process

Schools can apply online.

Important Dates

There are two application deadlines a year, 15th April and 7th October.

education.theiet.org/support/funding/funding-schemes-and-bursaries/

Persimmon Community Champions

This scheme funds good causes across the UK and gives away up to £64,000 every month. It's easy to apply and thousands of groups and charities have already benefitted from the initiative.

Funding Range

Up to £1,000 can be donated to each project.

Eligible Organisations

Community groups and charities in the UK are able to apply, so ensure your school is a registered charity before you submit your form.

Suitable Projects

The scheme aims to find 'local good causes' and so a range of projects will be considered. Previous projects which were awarded funding include turning a disused swimming pool into a school garden and helping a junior rugby club to throw a New Years Eve party.

Application Process

There is a simple online form that needs to be filled in with details about the project and the school. You will also need to explain why your school deserves the donation.

Important Dates

Funding is awarded on a monthly basis so the application form can be submitted at any time during the year.

Classics for All

Classics for All supports state schools in the UK to introduce or develop the teaching of classic subjects. Apply today to request funding for your school.

Funding Range

No specific funding ranges are mentioned on the Classics for All website.

Eligible Organisations

State primary and secondary schools in the UK are able to apply to this scheme.

Suitable Projects

The aim of the funding is to encourage the teaching of classic subjects, so a range of projects which aim to achieve this will be considered. In particular, the scheme states that they offer contributions to resources and books and ongoing support and mentoring.

Application Process

Ring the organisation on 0207 848 4741 or email grants@classicsforall.org.uk. You will need to supply some information on the school, your reason for introducing classics teaching and a summary of what you plan to do.

Important Dates

No dates or deadlines are mentioned on the Classics for All website.

SHINE Trust - Ready for School

The Trust supports projects which give disadvantaged children the best possible start to education in the North of England.

Funding Range

The normal range of SHINE grant funding for a two to three year project is around £20,000 to £1000,000.

Eligible Organisations

Schools, early year settings, Multi Academy Trusts and informal clusters of schools in the North of England are eligible to apply.

Suitable Projects

A range of projects will be considered, including those which develop communication skills, create stronger relationships between parents and teachers and give parents support to build upon language skills at home.

Application Process

To apply, please first submit an enquiry with an outline of your proposal which includes an overview of the project, how it meets SHINE's core priorities, the number of children it benefits and the budget.

Important Dates

Deadlines for applications are usually around the end of January, April and October each year.

Funding has opened for secondary school and sixth form colleges to apply for a grant of up to £100,000. With an early May deadline, don't miss your chance to gain funding!

Funding Range

The typical project range is £2,000 - £100,000 for new build, refurbishment and technical equipment. For equipment projects, the usual range is £15,000 - £50,000.

Eligible Organisations

The school or college must be state-funded, be rated at least 'good' by Ofsted, and be able to demonstrate an achieved level of excellence, or demonstrate they are making progress to achieving excellence.

If the applicant is a faith-based school, they must have a non-discriminatory entry policy and at least 10% must be of other denominations.

Suitable Projects

Grants are generally awarded for capital projects such as new builds, refurbishments, or technical equipment. The project should aim to achieve a higher quality of teaching space, a higher number of pupils taking the subject, and improved learning outcomes.

Application Process

Applicants are invited to apply online through a two-stage application process.

Important Dates

There are two funding rounds a year, 10th January and 10th June.

Magic Breakfast

Magic Breakfast, a charity dedicated to eliminating hunger as a barrier to education, has just announced that the Magic Breakfast Programme is open for applications.

Funding Range

This will depend on the needs of the school.

Eligible Organisations

Grants are offered to schools in deprived areas across the UK. To be eligible:

- A school in England must have at least 35% of children recorded as Pupil Premium.
- In Scotland, 55% of pupils should be in SIMD Deciles 1 to 4, and/or at least 35% eligible for FSM.
- For a secondary school in Scotland, the percentage of students in SIMD Deciles 1 to 4 should be 40%.

Although not currently available in Northern Ireland and Wales, Magic Breakfast encourage applications from all over the UK, as they are currently looking to expand.

Suitable Projects

Funding is used to provide pupils with a healthy breakfast at the beginning of a school day, with expert support if required.

Application Process

Schools are invited to complete an expression of interest form, which can be found online. If the school's records meet the eligibility criteria, their details are kept on a waiting list until funding becomes available.

Important Dates

This has an ongoing deadline, but projects will be funded in the order they are applied for.

The Wolfson Foundation - Special Schools and Colleges

Special schools and colleges can apply for funding of up to £75,000 for projects that help pupils to develop their employability skills and ability to live independently after leaving education.

Funding Range

The typical funding range is £20,000 - £75,000. The minimum grant available is £15,000.

Eligible Organisations

The special school should be a registered charity or run by a local authority with, where applicable, a rating of at least good. It should also be registered with any relevant regulatory authority.

Suitable Projects

The funding is typically awarded to capital projects. This includes new builds, refurbishments, or equipment.

In addition, the capital project should aim to achieve one of the following: an increase in access to services for users, an improved quality and greater range of services, and/or greater financial stability for the organisation.

Application Process

Applicants are invited to apply online through a two-stage application process.

Important Dates

There are two deadlines a year, 5th January and 1st July.

Ray Y Gildea Jr Award

Don't miss the next deadline for the Royal Geographical Society's Ray Y Gildea Jr Award, supporting innovative projects in the teaching of any field of Geography in both secondary and higher education.

Funding Range

Up to £1,000 is available.

Eligible Organisations

The grant is available to secondary and higher educational institutions in the UK and the US. The grants are awarded to teachers who are currently employed either at secondary school level, or within the higher education sector. They must be actively teaching students.

Suitable Projects

The funding is available for project research, development or pilot schemes that support learning in any field of Geography. There should be a direct benefit to the students.

Examples of past projects funded by the award include:

- The creation of resources at the University of Sheffield that tackle the issue of research bias to the Global North. The project was implemented through ethics training.
- The development of resources to help secondary school children to better understand the issues faced by the most marginalised communities and cultures across the world. Debate issues include environmental injustice and Human Rights.

Application Process

Applicants are advised to read the advice and resources guide before completing an application. Completed applications are then sent by email to grants@rgs.org.

Important Dates

The next deadline for this scheme is 30th November 2022.

Teacher Development Fund

With six grants of up to £150,000 available, the scheme aims to support art-based learning within the UK curriculum.

Funding Range

Six grants of up to £150,000 are available.

Eligible Organisations

Primary schools or arts/cultural organisations are invited to apply.

All applications will be required to illustrate a concrete partnership with 5-10 other schools, and must include at least one art/cultural organisation.

Suitable Projects

The grant is available for projects that seek to promote learning and teaching through art-based methods in the classroom.

One example of a past project funded by the grant is the Chelmsford Teaching Schools Alliance, who were supported to embed music-based learning across early years curriculum, foundation stage curriculum, and into Key Stage 1. The purpose was to improve pupils' abilities in areas such as language development.

Application Process

To apply, submit a brief using the first stage application form. If you are successful, you will hear back within two weeks, and will be required to submit a full application.

Important Dates

Applications will next open again in autumn 2022.

Science and Technology Facilities Council

The Science and Technology Facilities Council (STFC) Public Engagement Spark Awards funds projects covering a range of topics including nuclear physics and astronomy.

Funding Range

Grants of up to £600 are available. Normally, projects that require the grant to contribute to a small proportion of the overall project will not be funded.

Eligible Organisations

This grant is available to almost anyone, including schools, museums, grant-funded researchers, STFC scientists and engineers, amateur astronomy groups, and science communicators.

All applications must include a researcher in an area of science or technology that is STFC-funded – who may play an active role in engagement activities. However, this is not mandatory, and they may simply act as an advisor on the scientific content.

Suitable Projects

The grant is typically given to projects that cover the following topics: nuclear physics, accelerator science, solar and planetary science, astronomy, particle physics, cosmology and particle astrophysics. Or, clearly align with the work of the STFC.

In 2019, the fund supported a project called 'Space for You Key Stage Two' where children with low capital science backgrounds learnt from researchers about themes such as light, space and magnetism.

Application Process

There is an online application form.

Important Dates

The next deadline for this grant is yet to be announced.

Institute of Physics

Institute of Physics, Institution of Engineering & Technology and the Science & Technology Facilities Council have teamed up to help promote physics in young learners. Don't miss the 1st June deadline!

Funding Range

Grants of up to £600 are available. Normally, projects that require the grant to contribute to a small proportion of the overall project will not be funded.

Eligible Organisations

Schools, colleges and home school groups in the UK are all able to apply for this grant.

Suitable Projects

This grant is available for events, activities and projects that promote physics and engineering in young people and go beyond the school curriculum. The grant can be used to cover the cost of materials, marketing and publicity, transport, supply cover (circumstantial) and other appropriate purposes as decided by the judges. Proposals that demonstrate high levels of cost-effectiveness are welcomed.

Applicants are advised that if applying to fund a bought-in show, their applications will be stronger if they integrate this into a wider project. Additionally, applicants are particularly encouraged to submit applications for projects that cover these particular topics: particle physics, transport, space and nuclear physics, energy, design and promotion, built environment, astronomy, or information and communications.

Application Process

Applications can be made through the Institute of Physics platform. Applicants should allow up to five weeks after the closing date for a decision on their project.

Important Dates

There are three deadlines throughout the year, 1st February, 1st June and 1st November.

The Finnis Scott Foundation

The Finnis Scott Foundation has just opened applications for their Botanical Art Award. Worth £10,000, the grant supports the areas of horticulture, plant sciences, art, and art history.

Funding Range

Generally, the trustees award projects between £500 - £10,000. Sometimes in exceptional circumstances, they may award grants that are higher than this sum.

Eligible Organisations

Grants are offered to both UK charities and individuals, schools, colleges and universities, other educational or research institutions, and any other not for profit organisation. Preference is given to independent organisations and charities.

Suitable Projects

The grant can be awarded to both capital and revenue projects, including grants for apprenticeships or bursaries, however requests for salaries are not considered. The trustees may award grants for any charitable purpose, however, the current policy states that grant-making be focused on the areas of:

- Horticulture and plant sciences
- Fine art
- Art history

Application Process

Applicants are asked to complete an application form, available from their website, and send it along with supporting documents by email or post.

In addition, they ask that applicants include: a business or project plan (if available), an annual report and most recent accounts, the current budget and project budget and any other documents that the trustees or administrator require for the application.

Once applications are received, applicants are informed whether their application was eligible within two weeks. Trustees at this point may ask for further information.

Important Dates

Applications must be received four weeks before the trustees meet which is every January, April, July and October.

Transforming British Tennis Together - Tennis Facility Fund

The Lawn Tennis Association (LTA) has launched a new capital grants programme to help transform tennis facilities in local communities.

Funding Range

A total of £125m will be divided between two funds:

1. Transforming British Tennis Together Fund. This will provide significant support for partnership bids, with the aim of creating Community Tennis Networks. There is no upper limit on the amount you can bid for, but you will receive up to 50% of the total funding required. Around half of this will be a grant and the other half will be an interest free loan.
2. Growing the Game Fund. This is for smaller venues that cannot be part of a Community Tennis Network (primarily for geographical reasons). Again, up to 50% of the total project cost will be funded, but this will be primarily issued in the form of an interest free loan.

Eligible Organisations

The following organisations are eligible to apply:

- Clubs
- Schools and colleges
- Universities
- Local authorities

Suitable Projects

The overall aim of the programme is to increase people playing tennis at a grassroots level. This requires:

- Accessible facilities where local people can play, rain or shine
- Great people to operate these facilities, and
- An easy way for players to find and book courts.

All bids must include:

- Plans to increase the number of covered or floodlit courts
- Plans to implement online booking and a simple court access system.

They will support bids including covered courts, clubhouses and cafes, floodlights, multi-sports surfaces suitable for tennis and accessible facilities that cater for disabled players. They are looking for strong collaboration, involving multiple stakeholders working together to build meaningful and lasting projects.

Application Process

There is an online expression of interest form to complete.

This will start the process and, if your project is eligible, you will be invited to submit an application form. When you are planning your project, you are advised to contact your regional LTA team for advice.

Important Dates

If you would like to apply for a smaller grant from the Growing the Game fund, you can submit your application at any time.
